

The Institute for Theological Partnerships in association with Living Spirituality Connections and Spirit of Peace

WORKING WITH EMERGENCE

SATURDAY 19TH MAY

10.00 am to 5.15 pm

Main Building 5, University of Winchester

£25 payable on booking

For more information and to book your place visit Winchester.ac.uk/ITP/Emergence

In the face of growing complexity and diversity in our local and global communities, and our increasingly unsustainable way of life, we need a new form of intelligence, and related skills and tools, to enable us to be effective agents for change.

WORKING WITH EMERGENCE (LECTURE AND WORKSHOP)

Chris Mowles

Professor of Complexity and Management
University of Hertfordshire.

THE EMERGENCE OF INTERIORITY AND THE ON-GOING EVOLUTION OF RELIGION IN A STILL UNFINISHED UNIVERSE

Rev. Dr Terry Biddington

Dean of Spiritual life and Lecturer in Practical and Eco Theology
University of Winchester.

UNIVERSITY OF WINCHESTER
INSTITUTE FOR
THEOLOGICAL PARTNERSHIPS